The property is a five-story brick building with a package store on the first floor and a lodging house operation on the upper floors. The liquor store is operated by the owner of the real estate. The store was remodelled recently and is described as being in very good condition. The upper floors contain eleven units used for light housekeeping. Most of the units are rented on a weekly basis.

The appraisers give greatest weight to the income approach.

After analyzing the income and expense statements of the two appraisers, a value of $69,400 is recommended.
